

Through a newspaper article, it was brought to my attention that there are certain businesses that are trying to poke holes in the existing No Call law here in the state of Wisconsin. Our stringent laws here in this state have been a blessing. I would not like to see any ruling that would lessen our laws concerning telemarketers. Thank you for letting me express my opinion on this matter.